Dyrham Park and Arkley Lane

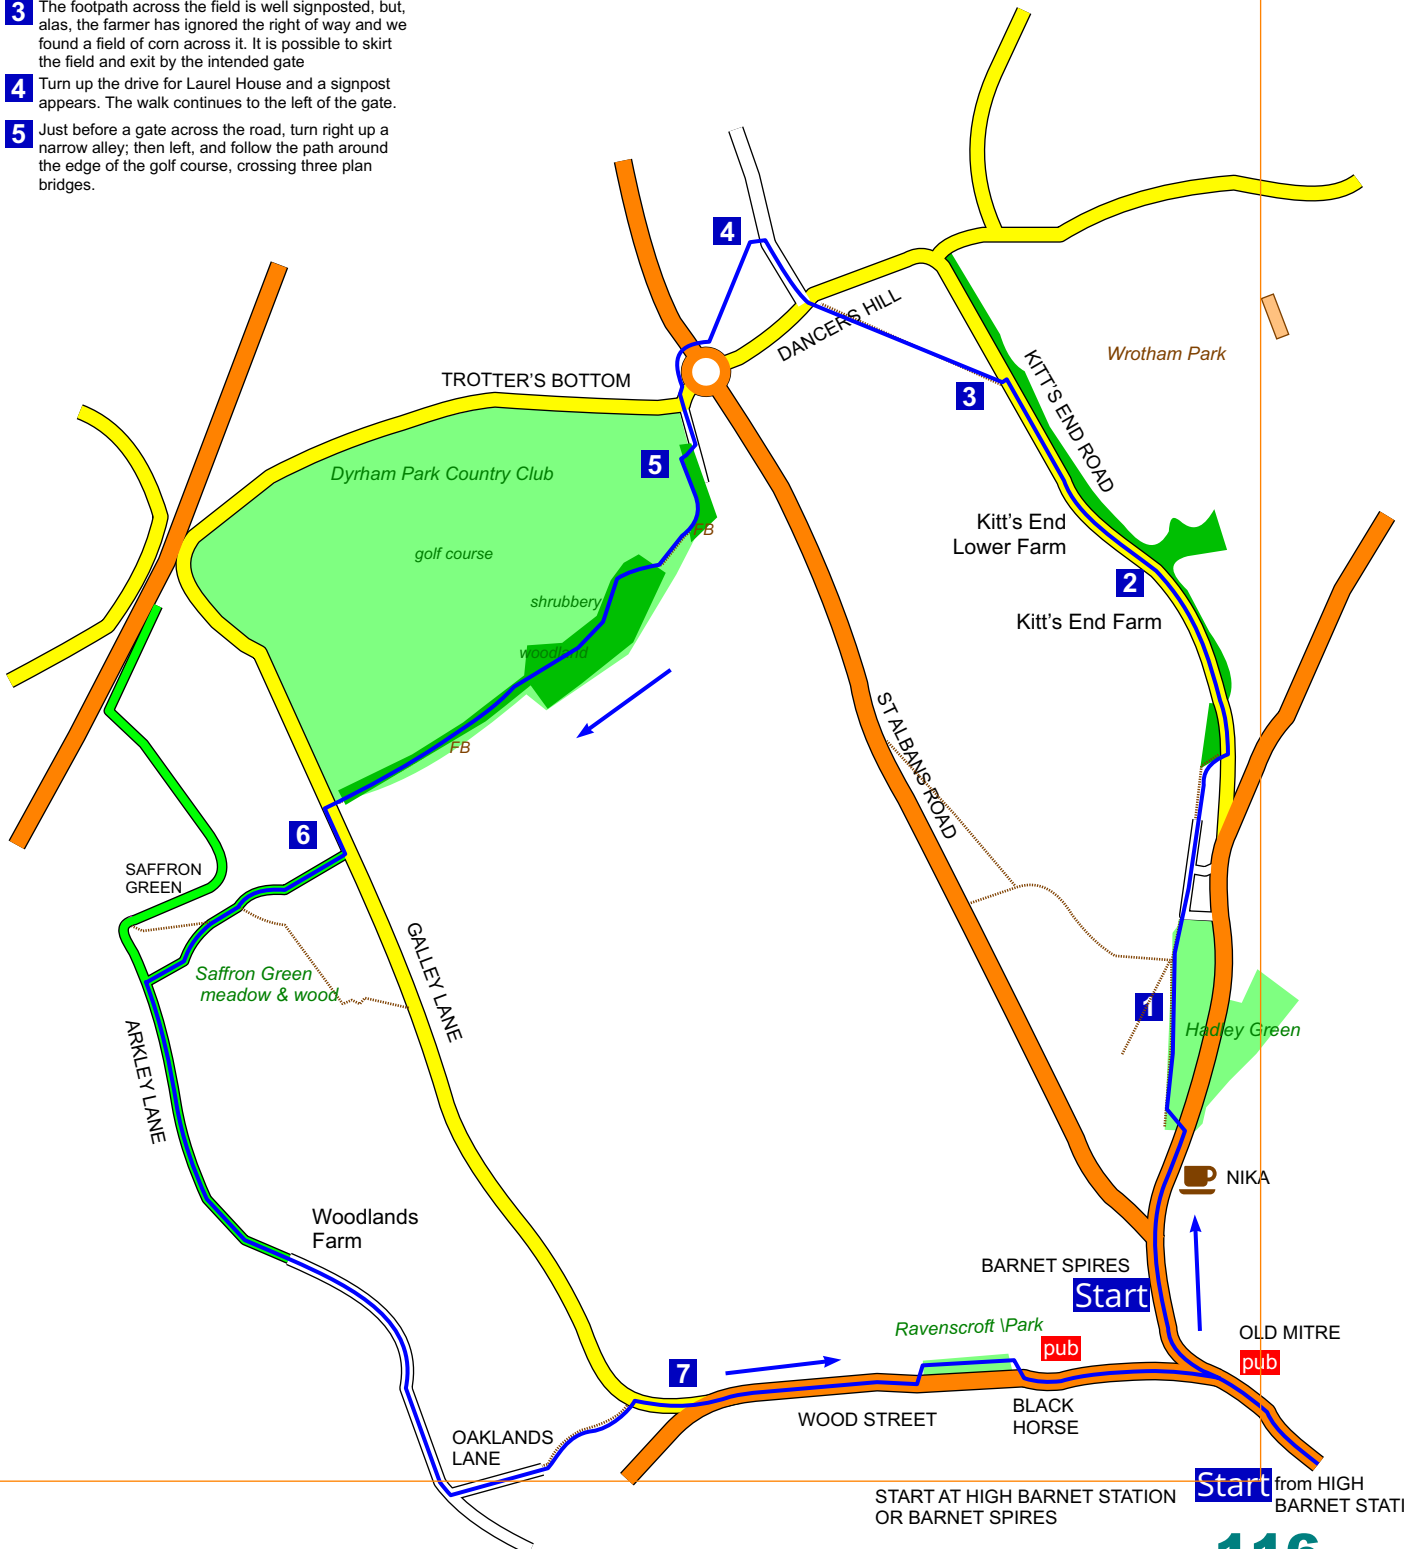

connection with another walk

1 kilometre

- 1 After leaving Barnet, the path follows the western perimeter of Hadley Green, on the green.
- 2 Sadly it is not possible to walk on all of the verge and traffic, though light, is fast moving. Face the oncoming traffic when not on the verge
- 3 The footpath across the field is well signposted, but, alas, the farmer has ignored the right of way and we found a field of corn across it. It is possible to skirt the field and exit by the intended gate
- 4 Turn up the drive for Laurel House and a signpost appears. The walk continues to the left of the gate.
- 5 Just before a gate across the road, turn right up a narrow alley; then left, and follow the path around the edge of the golf course, crossing three plan bridges.

- 6 The bridle path to Arkley Lane is well signed, and there is a map board just inside the gate.
- 7 The first part of Wood Street is busy and tedious, consider getting a 107 bus at this point to High Barnet Station.
